Every day, throughout the U. S. and around the globe, the National Cristina Foundation is putting donations of used and obsolete computer equipment to work—at no charge to donors or recipients—helping train people with disabilities, students at risk and those who are disadvantaged to become more independent and productive in their lives.

Benefits to Donors:

- Easy disposal of your used or obsolete computer technology.
- No charge to donors or to recipients for our service
- Provides logistical support that eliminates transfer costs and reduces storage costs
- Assures that all organizations that receive donations through our process are pre-screened for eligibility
- Customizes your philanthropic efforts in the communities in which you conduct business
- Provides records to support your tax deductions (and now through a new tax bill there are additional tax credits for computers that are donated that are three years old or less)
